A bold, responsible and confident person with excellent communication and interpersonal skills. Information and communication technology proficient, potent team player, motivated with a flexible and patient approach. Results-driven, dynamic leader with advanced skills and effective in developing and supervising cross-functional teams, Expertise in research, strategy, human resource planning and development, task management across multiple functions.

Currently, the President and CEO of Africa Open Data and Internet Research Foundation (AODIRF) with over 15+ years of experience in ICT, implementing various forms of policies on e-Government Network and Infrastructure, E-applications, Open Data Policies Platforms and Community Development, Domain Name Systems and Cyber Security, Public Sector Reforms, Internet Governance and Policies, Geospatial Technologies, Open Source Technologies, Software Engineering, Next Generational Networks and Event Planning and Management.

Wisdom is a member of the ICANN GNSO Council, ICANN Transfer Policy Review Working Group, UN IGF MAG Member, IGF Support Association Executive Committee Member, World Bank Independent Consultant, Ghana OGP Advisory Committee Member, Ghana Statistical Service SDG's Advisory Committee Member, ECOWAS WAIGF Advisory Committee Member, AU AFIGF Advisory Committee Member